AGM WITH VIP TALK Swiss Embassy, 16 – 18 Montagu Place, London W1H
SATURDAY 30 MAY 2015, 6PM

This year our AGM will be combined with a stimulating talk: Ticino and Switzerland: Ticino and its Place in Swiss History

The talk will be given by Professor Jonathan Steinberg, the Walter H. Annenberg Professor of Modern European History from the University of Pennsylvania.

The theme is particularly appropriate this year which marks the 500th anniversary of the Swiss defeat at the Battle of Marignano, the event that ultimately led to the evolution of Ticino.

Professor Steinberg is one of the world's greatest experts on Switzerland, and author of the acclaimed book 'Why Switzerland?' of which the third, revised edition is about to appear. He also has close links to Ticino as a member of the advisory board of Franklin University Switzerland which is based in Lugano.

The lecture will be followed by a traditional Ticinese meal. The price of the inspiring talk and meal will be £18 with booking details and papers for the AGM following in the next newsletter.

Booking form essential and to be received by Friday 23rd May 2015 as attached !
