Gabrielle Ducombe

Parisian-Style Jazz and Tango

Gabrielle Ducombe, singing in English and French, is a fast rising star on the UK Jazz scene. Following her sell-out show at the London Jazz Festival, she will be performing with Nicolas Meier, on guitar, Maurizio Minardi, on accordion and Nick Kacal, on bass, at Kenwood House on 13th October, 2016. Nicolas Meier, of course, will be a familiar name to those Friends who attended the very successful concert held in October last year.

Gabrielle Ducombe brings a special blend of Gallic charm and sophistication to her performances of Parisian-style jazz and tango. Ranging from contemporary jazz to French popular song, Gabrielle puts a fresh jazz spin on iconic chansons by Edith Piaf, Michel Legrand, Serge Gainsbourg and Astor Piazzolla. Her performances embrace a sultry, seductive smoothness along with sensitivity and passion.

We hope you will join us for this special occasion.
