

The Blitz London at War

A guided walk through the City of London
We meet at St. Paul's e Tube exit 2 on Thursday 9 June 2011 at 6.30 pm

“send every bloody pump you've got, the whole bloody world's on fire”
London Fireman during a Luftwaffe raid 8 September 1940

The dome of St. Paul's seemed to ride the sea of fire like a great ship. Ludgate Hill was carpeted in hosepipes. Two hundred people died that night. On the north side of the cathedral 63 acres became a waste of smoking ash and rubble. Another 100 acres were completely devastated in other raids that autumn. At the finish, out of the City's tight-packed 461 acres, 164 were reduced to ruin. And this was just 1940.
