Thursday 13 October 2011 at 7 pm
at the Embassy of Switzerland, 16–18
Montagu Place, London W1H 2BQ

A family. At daybreak, Serge believes he has committed a crime. Pietra realises that she has been betrayed around midday. At one o'clock 8 year old Vlad feels lovesick for the first time. The day is spent observing, looking, avoiding and meeting each other.

One day, three different perspectives: the same evening twilight, the same loneliness.

And there is always the stranger who crosses their path. How will Serge, Pietra and Vlad find each other?

Contains moderate sex references.
