DIRECT DEMOCRACY AND THE SWISS ABROAD

Wednesday 7 September 2011, 7 pm, at the Swiss Embassy
16-18 Montagu Place, London W1H 2BQ

2011 is an important year in the Swiss political diary as the federal election will be held on 23.10.2011. In this context, a panel of Swiss politicians will be debating if the Swiss abroad can really intervene in the political decision process and what their party intend to do for the Swiss abroad during the next legislation. This will be followed by a question and answer session.

Prof. Clive Church, Emeritus Professor, University of Kent, a specialist on Swiss history and politics will chair this forum.

The panelists will be Mrs. Doris Fiala, MP, for the FDP, The Liberals,
Mr. Nicolas Szita, Senior Lecturer, UCL London, for the Swiss People's Party, Walter Suter, retired Ambassador, Permanent Representative of the Swiss Socialist Party at the Party of European Socialists, President of the International Section of the Swiss Socialist Party for the Social Democratic Party.

Entrance is free but registration is compulsory. Refreshments will be provided.

I/We would like to attend the forum on Wednesday 07.09.2011 at 7 pm
