

18th of October Zoom Session with Soliswiss 7PM UK time

Join us on the 18th of October as we cover the most frequently asked questions from Swiss living in the United Kingdom in relation to the latest agreements post Brexit between the United Kingdom and Switzerland.

During the evening we will also cover key topics of interest to Swiss living in the UK considering returning to Switzerland and Swiss living in Switzerland thinking about moving to the United Kingdom.

Dr. Nicole Töpperwien, CEO of Soliswiss, will provide us with an overview on the impact of the latest agreements between Switzerland and the United Kingdom as well as answering questions from the online audience.

Soliswiss was founded in 1958 and has as purpose to support Swiss citizens who move, work and live abroad or return back to Switzerland.

Soliswiss is committed to solidarity and give concrete support to their members. They offer professional advice on different issues, such as social security, insurances (health, liability, etc.) and help in crisis situations. They provide access to a wide range of products and services tailored to the needs of their members. Soliswiss advice covers the following areas:

General Advice, Insurance, Finance & Pension, Legal Advice, Crisis counselling and many more.

During the presentation you will have the opportunity to ask questions directly to Dr. Nicole Töpperwien or, if you prefer it, you can send them to us via email info@newhelveticociety.org.uk and they will be answered live during the zoom meeting.
